The American Job Centers (AJC) are the centerpiece of veterans’ employment services in all the localities. These are funded by the Department of Labor, administered by state-level Workforce Development Boards (WDBs), and operated by local communities.

AJC provides comprehensive services to both employers and job seekers. It serves as the central location for HR Managers to meet and communicate with job seekers to match them to their current openings.

It is also the central point in the local community where customers (both veteran and nonveteran job seekers and employers) can access employment insurance, labor market information, employment/skill assessment services, and direct referrals to job training and job opportunities within their communities.
DOL ETA funds States to operate over 2,400 American Job Centers (AJCs).

The AJCs delivered services and support to over 13 million Americans last year.

Over 400,000 were VETS, Guardsman and Reservists.

VETS funds 1,286 Disabled Veterans’ Outreach Program specialists (DVOPs)

VETS funds 529 Local Veterans’ Employment Representatives (LVERs)

VETS funds employment training at the National Veterans’ Training Institute (NVTI)
The American Job Center (AJC) Concept

The AJC concept for connecting workers and employers in the job market

- Labor supply (workers)
  - Employment services for workers

- Labor demand (employers)
  - Employment services for employers

- Demand for services
  - Nonveteran workers
    - Youth
    - Adult
  - Veterans

- Priority of Service
- Gold Card
- Dislocated Worker

- Employment service providers
  - Federal- and state-level providers
  - Private for-profit and non-profit companies

- Counseling about labor markets
- Counseling about interviewing and choices
- Networking with job applicants
- Subsidies and incentives for hiring veterans

Department of Labor’s Registered Apprenticeship Program

Benefits to Companies:

• Receive consulting services from DOL in the design, development, and structure of their Registered Apprenticeship program

• By partnering with DOL, it will bring a level of credibility to their training program by meeting approved standards

• Upon completion of the program, the apprentice will earn a nationally recognized credential. This credential be used as a recruiting tool to attract prospective applicants

• The company will attract veterans and those transitioning out of the service since they will be able to utilize GI Bill benefits (not take on educational debt)

• Career Skills Program/Skill Bridge (military pays transitioning service member’s salary while in pre-apprenticeship training program)

• Increased employee retention / reduce turnover costs

• Creates a system where employers can track return on investment of training dollars invested
DoD SkillBridge

Through DoD SkillBridge, tremendous potential exists for service members, companies, trade unions, and others to leverage this talent pipeline to meet state, regional, and industry workforce needs.

DoD can use the SkillBridge program to connect to DOL programs already in place and funded to facilitate Transitioning Service Members’ success.
The Honoring Investments in Recruiting and Employing American Military Veterans Act of 2017 (HIRE Vets Act) requires DOL to establish a HIRE Vets Medallion Program to recognize employer efforts to:

(1) Recruit, Employ, and Retain veterans

(2) Provide community and charitable services supporting the veteran community.

Under this Act, DOL will:

- Establish the program, no later than 2 years after enactment
- Solicit, Review, Verify award applications from employers
- Notify award recipients
- Issue Medallion awards at a time coinciding with Veterans Day

HIRE Vets Medallion Program

Shining a light on employers who hire our nation’s heroes.

Honoring the Employers who Hire our Nation’s Heroes

The Department of Labor is establishing the HIRE Vets program under the Honoring Investments in Recruiting and Employing American Military Veterans Act, or HIRE Vets Act. President Donald J. Trump signed the act into law May 5, 2017.

"The Department of Labor looks forward to shining the spotlight on employers who make hiring veterans a priority and encouraging other employers to hire our nation’s heroes."

U.S. Secretary of Labor
Alexander Acosta
